COURSE DESCRIPTION

English 202D introduces students to the conventions, genres, and strategies of business communication. In particular, this course focuses on skills in critical analysis, document design, reader-centered writing, and professional discourse.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK

Oliu, Walter E., Charles T. Brusaw, and Gerald J. Alred. Writing That Works: Communicating Effectively on the Job. 13th ed., Bedford/St. Martin's, 2020. ISBN: 978-1-319-36152-5.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING

| Project                         | Grade Weight |
|---------------------------------|--------------|
| Topic Approval Proposal (TAP)   | 10%          |
| Correspondence Packet (CP)      | 15%          |
| Job Application Documents (JAD) | 20%          |
| Document Design (DD)            | 15%          |
| Funding Request Pitch (FRP)     | 15%          |
| Peer Reviews                    | 15%          |
| Participation                   | 10%          |
| Total                    | 100%  |

***You must hand in all major projects to pass this course***

- Each project has a detailed assignment sheet available on Canvas, which we will discuss in class.
  - If you're unsure of what an assignment requires, please ask me in class, during office hours, or over email.
- Assignments will be due at the time specified in the schedule. Submitting a project after the deadline will result in the loss of 1 full letter grade per late day; submitting peer review feedback late will result in the loss of 1 point per day late.
- Each project (except the FRP) will be peer reviewed and you will review a partner's draft before the submission deadline. Use the feedback you get to improve your project. Peer review feedback will be graded out of 10 points.
- Each project should be grammatically and stylistically polished. Each project should exhibit correct formatting for that type of document. Grading will reflect the seriousness with which these matters are frequently viewed in the professional world.

~Participation

Participation is crucial to our classroom community—this is an interactive class where, in large part, what you get out of the course depends on what you put in. The participation grade is a holistic and comprehensive grade evaluating your contributions over the semester to full class discussions, group work/discussions, writing conferences, and attendance.

- Writing Conferences: Coming to discuss your work, writing, or ideas with me during office hours will add  $\frac{1}{3}$  letter grade toward your participation grade per visit. Especially if you're nervous about talking in class, this can be a great way to simultaneously get useful feedback and boost your participation score.

POLICIES

---

ATTENDANCE

You are allowed to miss 3 classes with no penalty to your grade. Each class missed beyond those 3 will cost  $\frac{1}{3}$  of a letter from your overall course grade.

- Excused absences do not count against your grade. In order for an absence to be excused you must discuss it with me as early as possible beforehand (at least 24 hours). Reasons for excused absences may include: religious holidays, military service, university required activities (i.e., participation in a university sports team), or severe illness or injury.
  - Quarantining for Covid-19 will count as an excused absence.
- If you miss class, it is your responsibility to make up the missed material. Ask a classmate to take notes for you, come to office hours, and/or email me as soon as possible, preferably before the missed class period.
- Be aware: you can fail a class for non-attendance regardless of the quality of written work done.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity is the pursuit of scholarly activity in an open, honest and responsible manner. Academic integrity is a basic guiding principle for all academic activity at The Pennsylvania State University, and all members of the University community are expected to act in accordance with this principle. Consistent with this expectation, the University's Code of Conduct states that all students should act with personal integrity, respect other students' dignity, rights and property, and help create and maintain an environment in which all can succeed through the fruits of their efforts.

Academic integrity includes a commitment by all members of the University community not to engage in or tolerate acts of falsification, misrepresentation or deception. Such acts of dishonesty violate the fundamental ethical principles of the University community and compromise the worth of work completed by others.

You must complete this work entirely on your own. You may not assist other students or use any online sites (e.g., Course Hero or Chegg), technologies (e.g., ChatGPT, language translators), tools, or sources that are prohibited.

ACCESSIBILITY: DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION

Penn State welcomes students with disabilities into the University's educational programs. Every Penn State campus has an office for students with disabilities. The Student Disability Resources Web site provides contact information for every Penn State campus (equity.psu.edu/student-disability-resources). For further information, please visit the Student Disability Resources website at equity.psu.edu/sdr.

In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, you must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation (equity.psu.edu/student-disability-resources/applying-for-services). If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus's disability services office will provide you with an accommodation letter. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. You must follow this process for every semester that you request accommodations.

EDUCATION EQUITY: AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

Penn State takes great pride to foster a diverse and inclusive environment for students, faculty, and staff. Acts of intolerance, discrimination, or harassment due to age, ancestry, color, disability, gender, gender identity, national origin, race, religious belief, sexual orientation, or veteran status are not tolerated and can be reported through Educational Equity via the Report Bias webpage (equity.psu.edu/reportbias/).

COUNSELING AND PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES

Many students at Penn State face personal challenges or have psychological needs that may interfere with their academic progress, social development, or emotional wellbeing. The university offers a variety of confidential services to help you through difficult times, including individual and group counseling, crisis intervention, consultations, online chats, and mental health screenings. These services are provided by staff who welcome all students and embrace a philosophy respectful of clients' cultural and religious backgrounds, and sensitive to differences in race, ability, gender identity and sexual orientation.

STANDARDS OF CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR

Classroom behavior should always reflect the essential Penn State values of civility, integrity, and respect for the dignity and rights of others. As such, the classroom space should be safe, orderly, and positive—free from disruptions, disorderly conduct, and harassment as defined in the University Code of Conduct (<https://studentaffairs.psu.edu/student-accountability/code-procedures/student-code-conduct>). The University Code of Conduct defines disruption “as an action or combination of actions by one or more individuals that unreasonably interferes with, hinders, obstructs, or prevents the operation of the University or infringes on the rights of others to freely participate in its programs and services;” disorderly conduct includes but is not limited to “creating unreasonable noise; pushing and shoving; creating a physically hazardous or physically offensive condition;” and harassment may include “directing physical or verbal conduct at an individual...; subjecting a person or group of persons to unwanted physical contact or threat of such; or engaging in a course of conduct, including following the person without proper authority (e.g., stalking), under circumstances which would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others or to suffer emotional distress” (Section IV, B). The course instructor has the authority to request that any disruptive students leave the class for the class period. If disruptive behavior continues in subsequent class periods, a complaint may be filed with the Office of Student Conduct, which may result in the student being dismissed from class until University procedures have been completed. Any student with concerns or questions as to this policy should contact the Director of the Program in Writing and Rhetoric.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT STATEMENT

The Pennsylvania State University campuses are located on the original homelands of the Erie, Haudenosaunee (Seneca, Cayuga, Onondaga, Oneida, Mohawk, and Tuscarora), Lenape (Delaware Nation, Delaware Tribe, Stockbridge-Munsee), Shawnee (Absentee, Eastern, and Oklahoma), Susquehannock, and Wahzhazhe (Osage) Nations. As a land grant institution, we acknowledge and honor the traditional caretakers of these lands and strive to understand and model their responsible stewardship. We also acknowledge the longer history of these lands and our place in that history.
